Price Elections
The Commodity Exchange Price Provisions (CEPP) contains information necessary to derive the projected price and the harvest price for the insured crop. The projected price is used to calculate the premium, replant payment and any prevented planting payment. The harvest price will be used to value production-to-count under the Revenue Protection and the Revenue Protection with Harvest Price Exclusion plans. The CEPP includes the price discovery period, release dates, board of trade used, and additional pricing information. The silage harvest price equals the projected price. Talk to your agent, or for more information see: www.rma.usda.gov/tools/price_discovery.html.

Coverage Levels and Premium Subsidies
The premium subsidy percentages and available coverage levels are shown below. Your share of the premium will be 100 percent minus the subsidy amount.

This fact sheet gives only a general overview of the crop insurance program and is not a complete policy. For further information and an evaluation of your risk management needs, contact a crop insurance agent.
Catastrophic Risk Protection (CAT) coverage is fixed at 50 percent of your average yield and 55 percent of the price election. The cost for CAT coverage is an administrative fee of $300.

Coverage Options

You may buy crop insurance coverage under one of three insurance plans offered.

- Yield Protection provides protection against production losses.
- Revenue Protection provides protection against loss of revenue due to production loss, price decline or increase, or combination of both.

Revenue Protection with Harvest Price Exclusion Plan provides revenue protection based on the projected price only.

Trend Adjusted (TA) Yield Option adjusts yields in Actual Production History (APH) databases to reflect increases in yields through time in the county. Check with your insurance agent for available TA practices.

Supplemental Coverage Option (SCO) a new crop insurance option that provides additional coverage for a portion of your underlying crop insurance policy deductible. The amount of SCO coverage depends on the liability, coverage level, and approved yield of your underlying policy. SCO may not be available in every county. For further information visit the SCO Fact Sheet at: www.rma.usda.gov/newscurrentissuesfarmbill/2014NationalSupplementalCoverageOption.pdf.

Insurance Units

Basic, optional, enterprise, and whole farm unit structures are available in corn program counties. Premium discounts apply for basic, enterprise, and whole farm units. Additional subsidy is available for enterprise and whole farm units. Yield protection is not available for whole farm unit structure.

Late and Prevented Planting

These provisions provide protection on acreage planted after the final planting date or that cannot be planted. Consult a crop insurance agent for details.

Loss Example

Assume corn with an approved yield of 90 bushels per acre, 75-percent coverage level, $4.62 projected price, $3.49 harvest price, and 40 bushels produced. For Revenue Protection, the insurance guarantee is equal to the production guarantee multiplied by the greater of the projected price or the harvest price. In this example, the Revenue Protection harvest guarantee is $311.85 (67.5 bushels per acre guarantee multiplied by $4.62 projected price).
